

Women in Circuits and Systems (WiCAS) Session

Celebrating the contributions and impact of women in engineering across academia, industry and entrepreneurship. An invited talk and a roundtable discussion, open to all conference participants.

Monday, 9 November 2026, 14:00–15:30
The Met Hotel, Thessaloniki

Programme

- 14:00 Invited talk
- 14:30 Roundtable
- 15:30 Close

Invited Talk

Navigating the GAI Revolution in Scholarly Publishing

Dr. Gaia Tomasello, Editor-in-Chief, Advanced Electronic Materials

A roundtable follows, bringing together diverse perspectives on leadership, career development, and the challenges and opportunities facing women in Electronics, Circuits and Systems.

Meet the Panel

 Dr. Chrissavgi Dre Deputy Director, Intracom Defense	 Dr. Nathalie Deltimple Professor, University of Bordeaux	 Dr. Calliope-Louisa Sotiropoulou Manager, CAST	 Eleni Papageorgiou PhD student, Aristotle Univ.	MODERATOR  Dr. Maria Papadopoulos Assoc. Prof., Intl. Hellenic Univ.
---	--	--	--	---

What We Will Discuss

Personal leadership journeys, strategies for professional success, and the evolving role of women in shaping technological innovation. Audience questions welcome!

Who Should Attend

All conference participants, especially young professionals, women in engineering, aspiring leaders, and anyone interested in innovation, inclusion and leadership in CAS.